Presence Across the Value Chain

	Raw Material Conversion	Designing	Production Quality and Control	Sourcing and Logistics
Description	Tanning involves converting hides to leather	Creative process of conceptualizing the form and artwork of the product	Converting raw leather into finished leather products and accessories	Conceptualization, sourcing, assembling with components to make final product
Capabilities	25% of tannery done in-house	55% of designs shipped are original in-house designs	100% production done in-house	Global sourcing team with capabilities from all over the world